

Student Examples of Envisionment

Highly Proficient at Envisionment

4. Picture what is happening right now. Describe it including as many characters as you can.

I envision about 500 people cheering for the Hawks' team, getting ready to scream if the Hawks won or lost. Abby has a red and black jersey on, and in a ponytail, she breathes deeply every time somebody gets the ball. She watches nervously as Kathy, a blond girl, smiles as she jumps for a shot, and gets slammed into by a mad girl player. Kathy winces in pain as she tries to get up. All the loud cheering stops, but the mad player keeps shouting, "It's not my fault!" to every one.

Not Yet Proficient at Envisionment

4. Picture what is happening right now. Describe it including as many characters as you can.

I see Abby running up and down the court stealing the ball.